

WEB SITES FOR STUDENTS

CAREER EXPLORATION

Adventures in Education : www.adventuresineducation.org

This site offers career and college planning advice.

American Association of Interior Designers : www.asid.org

This site presents good information about Interior Design as a career.

America's Career Infonet : www.acinet.org

This site offers an extensive career research library, including 450 career videos.

Bureau of Labor Statistics : <http://stats.bls.gov>

This site provides data from the Department of Labor about the economy, including projections and regional information.

Career Builder Network: www.careerbuilder.com/

Huge career site provides job information, career advice and articles.

CareerJournal: www.careerjournal.com

This is The Wall Street Journal's career center site. It has great job information.

Career Key: www.careerkey.org/english

This site offers the Career Key interest inventory to assist students with identifying personality types and finding the jobs that fit those types. Information on career planning and exploration and more is also provided.

Career Pro News: <http://careerpronews.bridges.com>

Career related news is provided in this free career newsletter.

Career View: www.collegeview.com

This site offers a wealth of information on career opportunities, resume writing, interviewing skills, best paying and fastest growing careers and more.

Construction Industry: www.constructmyfuture.com

This site offers a wealth of information to students about careers in the construction industry

Discover Nursing: www.discovernursing.com

Learn about a career in nursing. Search for programs and scholarships.

FBI: www.fbi.gov/kids/6th12th/6th12th.htm

The FBI's web site for young adults. A day in the life of a special agent and other information for students.

Future Teachers: www.teachwashington.org

Find your pathway to teaching on this site.

Healthcare Management: www.HealthManagementCareers.com

Students can find out about the skills and abilities required for a career in the healthcare management field.

Jets – Junior Engineering Technical Society: www.jets.org

Explore and experience engineering. Learn what engineers really do.

Jewelers of America: www.jewelers.org

This site provides a guide to careers in the jewelry industry

Job Hunters Bible: www.jobhuntersbible.com

This is a great career information site with career resources, advice, tests and resume suggestions.

Land Surveyor: www.surveypath.org

Information on a career as a land surveyor – what they do, how to become one.

Lifeworks: www.science.education.nih.gov/lifeworks.nsf

This web site established by the National Institutes of Health Office of Science Education is an interactive health and medical career exploration program for students.

Mapping Your Future: www.mappingyourfuture.org

This site has career planning information including useful tips on job hunting resumes and interviewing. Also has occupational information and interest assessment.

Marine Careers: www.marinecareers.net

Learn about careers in marine biology and other marine sciences. Provides links to additional resources.

Military Career guide: www.militarycareers.com

This site provides details on 152 military occupations. Training, advancement and educational opportunities in each service are described.

Monster Board: www.monster.com

This site has a huge job database that is easily searched by geographic location and type of employment. There is help with resumes and career advice.

My Future: www.myfuture.com

This is a site for non-college careers, including the military and vocational career. It has an interest survey to help students identify careers. It also has a section on personal finance and a guide to interviewing.

O*Net Resource Center: www.onetcenter.org

The nation's primary source of occupational information. The O*Net database contains information on hundreds of occupations. Career Exploration Tools, a set of self-directed career exploration assessments, is provided.

Occupational Outlook Handbook: www.bls.gov/oco

Job descriptions, salaries, working conditions, educational requirements, and job outlook.

Quintessential Careers: www.quintcareers.com

A comprehensive career development site with resources and information for all ages

Washington State Apprenticeship Program: www.lni.wa.gov/scs/apprenticeship/

Find out what an apprenticeship is and what it can do for you. Get general information and contact numbers for Washington State Apprenticeship offices.

Vocational Information Center: www.khake.com

Explore vocational and technical careers on this site. Learn about the skills employers want, find a school, and look at current job market.

WAHOTT: www.wahott.com

This is Washington's healthcare career exploration web site. Explore the many exciting careers in health care and find the best schools for specific programs, degrees or certificates.

WOIS/The Career Information System: www.wois.org

Site provides complete and current information on civilian and military occupations, educational programs and Washington schools.