

TMCA
TALLER MEXICANO PARA
LA CULTURA Y LAS ARTES

presents

Día de Muertos 2009

(Day of the Dead)

Oct. 31st, 12-8pm • Nov. 1st, 12-6pm

Seattle Center • Center House

Free to the Public

Thurs, Oct. 29 & Friday, Oct. 30: Preview for school groups of all ages

Includes viewing of sand painting, art exhibits, short films, talking to artists and community members regarding tradition of Dia de Muertos, contributing to the community altar, and other activities. There are many ways for students to be involved in this celebration!

Contact Shawn at 206-356-6673 or muertos.tmca@gmail.com for more details and information.

This year, we are honoring the life of Mexican revolutionary Emiliano Zapata (1879-1919) on the 130th anniversary of life and 90th anniversary of death. We invite you to participate in the community altar dedicated to Zapata, with flowers, photos, poems, etc. for him or for loved ones that you want to remember on this Día de Muertos.

Program:

Altars & Ofrendas • Monumental Sand Painting • Art Exhibits • Photography Exhibits • Lectures • Short Films & Animations • Activities for Children & Adults • Print Making • Sugar Skulls • Face Painting • Paper Skeletons • Traditional Music & Dance • Pan de Muerto • Procession

For More Information:

www.tallermexicano.org

muertos.tmca@gmail.com

206-356-6673