

FAMILY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Are You Worried About Your Family's Future?

Hopelink's Family Development Program is free, confidential, and voluntary. If you live in North or East King County, are low income, and have at least one child under 18 living with you, you can enroll.

While working with a Family Development Specialist you can:

- Receive problem solving support
- Learn to spend and save money wisely
- Learn about educational opportunities like GED, English as a Second Language and college
- Develop competitive job search skills and strategies
- Learn to identify and address needs
- Create the future you want for your family
