

Time for BAND!

Have you ever considered playing a musical instrument? Now is the time for 5th graders to start. Anyone can join - no experience required - we start from the very beginning! Come to our Information Night on September 12th at 6:30 PM in the Rose Hill Junior High Cafeteria to have questions answered or just send in the sign up form at the bottom of this page. At our Information Night you will be able to meet the director, check out the band room, and there will also be a local vendor available to rent band instruments.

BAND MEETS on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Our first day is Monday September 19th. Class meets from 7:35 to 8:20 AM in the Rose Hill Junior High band room.

WHAT YOU NEED: The book "ACCENT ON ACHIEVEMENT BOOK ONE", your own instrument and a pencil. Listed below are other required materials for band:

FLUTE (not piccolo): Cleaning Rod

CLARINET: 4 reeds (size 2), cork grease, cleaning swab

TRUMPET, BARITONE, FRENCH HORN: Valve oil, tuning slide grease, snake

TROMBONE: Slide oil, slide grease, tuning slide grease, snake

PERCUSSION: Drum sticks size 5B (for snare drummers) or Mallets (for students who choose to start on bells instead)

TRANSPORTATION - Students may ride the bus to Rose Hill Junior High or arrange other transportation. You may call transportation (936-1120) to find out where the bus will pick up your child if you plan to ride the JH bus. Busses are provided to transport students back to the elementary schools.
