ALSO: On the Library Home Page click the Catalog tab, and search your topic. Just type in the last name of the inventor, or the invention itself in quotation marks, and then click the Subject or Keyword button. Scroll to see if there are WebPath Express links to even more great websites!

The screenshot shows the Kirkland Junior High Library website interface. The top navigation bar includes 'Home' and 'Catalog' tabs. The main content area displays search results for the subject 'Criminals'. The results are sorted by Relevance and show three items. The first item is 'Hole in my life' by Jack Gantos, published in 2002, with 1 of 1 available copies. The second item is 'WebPath Express Results on "Criminals"' by Follett Software Company, with no copies available. The third item is 'Steam detectives Vol. 2' by Kia Asamiya, published in 1999, with 1 of 1 available copies. A green box highlights the WebPath Express result. The left sidebar contains 'Library Search' and 'Visual Search' options, along with language filters for 'Français' and 'Español'.
