

August 3, 2009

Dear Parents and Students of the Class of 2013:

I am pleased to be among the first to welcome you to Redmond High School!

Since we believe strongly in the importance of a good transition to high school, only Sophomores will be attending classes on the first day of school, September 1, 2009. On that day, they will have an opportunity to attend their classes in an abbreviated schedule, to meet their teachers, review the handbook, tour the school, and attend an activities fair intended to encourage their full involvement in the life of the high school.

We know that your transition as part time students at RHS is equally important. For that reason, we will be asking you to report on the first day of school for all students (Wednesday, September 2) to the auditorium as soon as you arrive on campus. There, upperclassmen will be waiting to escort you to your first period classroom and introduce you to your teacher. Those Junior and Senior escorts will be able to answer any questions you have, but I do hope you will feel free to stop by the main office or to e-mail me at jtodd@lwsd.org if other questions occur to you during the course of the school year.

In addition, you are also requested to be on campus the week before school starts, at 7:30 a.m., on Monday, August 24, to get your picture ID as a Senior high school student, and to pick up your textbook(s) for the class(es) you will take with us. If you wish, you may stop by the main office to the left of the main entrance on that same day and we will be happy to provide you with a map so you can do a self-guided tour (figuring out where the bathrooms are, of course!) and to answer any questions you have.

I am looking forward to meeting you and to working with you for the next four years. If you have any questions between now and September 2, please do not hesitate to contact me by e-mail or by phone at 425-498-7130.

Sincerely,

Jane Todd
Principal
