

Educational planning

Educational Planning is the foundation that puts your dreams for the future into motion. Preparedness is the just the first step of success. Planning a course of study to meet your goals and aspirations in life is an important part of your journey. The following links provide valuable information that will facilitate your educational planning for college and a career.

Educational Planning Web Links
http://www.petersons.com	Information about colleges and universities, career schools, private secondary schools, study abroad, financial aid, test preparation and career exploration.
http://www.collegeboard.com	Registration online for the next SAT date. Also provides info on college planning.
http://collegeview.com	College View over 38,000 schools. Includes info to financial aid and jobs.
http://collegenet.com	Review and compare colleges. Hotlinks to the homepages of colleges of interest. Customized internet admissions applications.
http://www.campustours.com	Campus tour a college of interest with maps, photos, movies.
http://www.wiche.edu	The WUE is the Western Undergraduate Exchange. Reduced tuition is available for those students in the western states. You may enroll in many 2 and 4 year programs.
http://princetonreview.com	SAT and ACT testing information, free practice tests, college planning, and financial aid information.
http://www.kaplan.com	ACT and SAT testing preparation. Free practice tests, college planning and financial aid.
http://www.myfuture.com	Education and training opportunities in the military.
http://www.hecb.wa.gov/links/colleges/collegeindex.asp	Washington State colleges and universities.
http://www.community-college.org	Directory of community colleges in the U.S.
http://www.usnews.com/usnews/edu/college/directory/alpha_dir/brief/dir_a_brief.php	A – Z College directory