F.E.A.T. – Families for Effective Autism Treatment – FEAT of WA provides many different programs that serve the member families. There is both academic and recreational programming. Opportunities are available for both weekdays and weekends. Contact Judy Weiser for an interview. 206-763-3373 or judy.weiser@featwa.org. Visit the website – www.featwa.org.

Seattle Aquarium – The Seattle Aquarium has a high school volunteer program for students ages 16-18. This is an opportunity for students to immerse themselves in marine science and earn community service credit/hours. During the school year, each student volunteers three five-hour shifts per month from December – June. Shift times are Saturdays or Sundays from 9am – 2pm or 1pm – 6pm. During the shifts they give formal talks, monitor and interpret Aquarium exhibits, conduct visitor tours and assist with other special events. There is a mandatory orientation on either Saturday, October 4th from 11am – 12pm OR Tuesday, October 7th from 5-6pm. E-mail aquateens@seattle.gov for any further information.

Virginia Mason Hospital – Virginia Mason Volunteer Services is currently recruiting motivated, responsible and energetic teens for their Teen Volunteer Program. Teens, 15 or older, interested in developing skills, meeting new people and gaining on-the-job experience in a major medical facility are strongly encouraged to apply. Typically, a teen works one or two days a week for two or four hours in the afternoon or on the weekend. Applications are available in the Career Center or on line at vmvs@vmvc.org.

Dog Walking - Camp Korey at Carnation Farm is in need of people to walk rescue dogs (they have 16). Camp Korey is one of the “Hole in the Wall” free camps to support kids with life threatening disease. Any help, even an hour now and then would be helpful.
