

Code of Conduct

For
Students and Parents
Involved in
PTA Enrichment Activities @ Thoreau Elementary

Thoreau Elementary PTA strives to provide kids with programs and classes that promote student growth and enrichment. In order for us to achieve that goal, each student enrolled in these activities must demonstrate acceptable behavior standards. This document serves to clarify those standards and outline consequences when student behavior in these activities does not meet those standards.

Student Behavior Responsibilities during PTA sponsored activities

- Expected to exhibit conduct which is courteous, cooperative, responsible, and respectful.
- Students are responsible for
 - Their own behavior.
 - Respecting school property and personal belongings.
 - Attending activities as per the schedule and being on time to the activity.

Parent Responsibilities during PTA sponsored activities

- Parents must pick up their student promptly at the scheduled time.
 - Parents must go to the classroom or area that the student is in and get them or bring them to the classroom for morning programs and sign them out unless prior arrangements have been made.
 - When a student is having difficulty adhering to behavior standards, one or more of the following steps will be taken:
 - Instructor will talk with student to try to encourage proper or expected behavior.
 - Instructor will talk with parent to inform them of their child's behavior difficulties.
 - Failure of the student to comply with behavior standards will result in immediate dismissal from the program.
