CAREER CENTER & COUNSELING:

- It is unusual for scholarships to be available for underclassmen but at this time we have two which are available for grades 9-12 to compete for: Cancer Unwrapped Writing Contest and the “Cirkled” in Scholarship. The latter has a Feb. 15th deadline while Cancer Unwrapped closes on March 11th. For more information go to the Career Center page on Power School or stop by the CRC in the main building.
- Just a reminder to seniors that scholarship season is now officially starting to pick up steam. Check your latest Scholarship Bulletin for anything you may be interested in.
- Interested in learning to fly? Cascade Warbirds is a Northwest-based not-for-profit organization that provides aviation scholarships to local area youth. Their 2018 program is hereby announced; the program description and application form can be found at www.cascadewarbirds.org. After you enter the main logo, find “2018 Scholarship” in the “Updates” column on the left. The deadline this year is February 28th.
- Are you interested in video game programming, animation production or robotics? What about sports medicine or a class focused on a dental career? Find out more information on how you can earn college credit at the WANIC Open House, Wednesday, February 7, 2018, from 6:00 – 8:00 pm.
- Several jobs and volunteer opportunities are now listed on the Career Center’s Power School page.
