School Description

Rose Hill Elementary School is a warm and caring place. Our goal is to motivate students by accentuating the positive, encouraging progress and building on success. New learning grows comfortably when its roots are based in respect, regard and acknowledgement.

Our goal is to provide a comprehensive education that challenges and motivates every child to learn and grow. Our support staff, PTSA, our parents and community groups are critical partners.

To maximize the learning of a wide range of abilities, instructional programs and strategies are planned and taught by a highly collaborative teaching and support staff. Staff use data to drive instructional decision making.
