

Kindergarten | Science Power Standards

Physical Science

1. Explains that objects are made of different types of materials with properties that can be observed and used to sort things into different groups.

Life Science

2. Describes the unique structures of plants and animals and how these structures help meet their basic needs for life.
3. Describes how the environmental conditions in a habitat affect plants and animals.

Processes, Systems, Inquiry, Application

4. Describes the part-whole relationship in a system.
5. Plans and carries out scientific investigations.

